ELKO JUDGE CONTEST UNCHANGED BY CANVASS

The official cunvass of votes cor fucied by the Elko county commiloners during the past two days has not changed the status of the contes for the office of district Judge as I xists between E. P. Carville and J. M. McNanura, Elko attorneys, the independent says. The official recount of the votes which is provided for by statute in all cases where there is a tie or less than a majority of ten votes in any viection contest will begin temorrow according to the commissioners.

In taiking of the count a member of the board of commissioners as certed that it looked as though a special election would have to be talled to settle the tie. An unofficial canvass of rejected ballots showed a total of thirteen rejected for Mc Namara and nine for Carville. Evidently it is believed by the officials conducting the recount that a major portion of these rejected ballots will be thrown out on the recount and that he contest will again assume the status of a tie upon completion

NORTHWEST MOUNTED POLICE STORY TODAY

Who has read a story of the North west Mounted Police without feeling the thrill of their courage and informidable will? These men who go out to the distant forests and plains to keep order and uphold the law, generally go alone among men who are unfrienly, if not hostile. Through intense cold, fierce storms, and the myriad dangers of the trail, men of the Mounted push on to carry arough their appointed tasks These tasks usually call for the risk of FOR SALE-Five passenger Oldsife in the bringing outlaws to juslee.
